Live Gossip Concerning Players in the Virginia

LAWMAKERS IN LYNCHBURG

Eckstone Will Probably Pitch Today's Game Against the Shoemakers.

After losing five out of six games, the After losing due out of six games, the Lawmakers left for Lynchburg yesterday to there tackle the same aggregation of ballologists that was here last week. Eckstone will probably work in the opening game, and he may win. Colonel Still will do the stunts to-morrow, and Long will work on Wednesday. These three should bring back at least two victories.

Laval didn't field his position any toe well in Saturday's game, and he may attribute the defeat to this cause. Several times when bells were batted in his territory he didn't handle them in time to save the runner.

Daringer, the small one for the Sheet who suppers to he a concentration.

makers, who appears to be a concentrated bunch of nerves, simply flew into the air Saturday and took down a ball that had gone over Cook's head and which would have been a wild throw that would have netted the Lawmakers at least tw omore runs. "Reddy" Walsh, the Lynchburg's good backstop, to whom all of the pitchers like to twirl, will be in the game within a week. He has a very bad finger, and Bentley is doing the honors behind the bat for him. Bentley is a good catcher, but "Reddy" is the best in the business in the league. Umpire Hoffner left for Lynchburg last night, not going with the players, because of the fact that his wife arrived in the city after the train carrying the Lawmakers had gone. He will handle the indicator in Lynchburg and return here with the home boys.

ing his team in the Eastern League to the top with rapid bounds. He has a nine that will make any of the major league nines go a little bit to get ahead King Kelly, of Roanoke, was asked the other day if he could play golf, and he replied in the negative. He said, however, that he knew the game all right. "It is this way," said the veteran ball player; "you take a little ball and put it on a mound on the ground. Then you take a long stick with a crooked handle and hit the ball. If you find the ball the same day you win." He was thanked for the information.

Emporia, with Hobbs in the box, beat the Richmond Brownies three games in Emporia lust week. Albert Anthony took down a good crowd of players, but the majority of them were not in good condition. Winstn lost the game that he twirled. Hobbs is one of the best pitchers ever seem in Richmond, and he could, land with any team if he desired to play ball.

Schumann struck out ten men, gave two bases on balls and allowed only two of them to hit the sphere. This is a game that will win forty-eight times out of wasn't any show for a defeat.

If one of the pitchers in the Virginia League would duplicate the trick of Mathewson, the New York National box artist, there would be great lamentation in the camp of the rooters. Mathewson didn't do a thing but allow Chicago to send seven men around the bases in one inning. McGinnity was pushed in to do the work, and McGinnity had his troubles just the same. Ferguson wound the matter up and there were nineteen runs against the World's Champions. 'Twas terrible, but it showe? the uncertainty of baseball.

Philadelphians didn't like Umpire

Philadelphians didn't like Umpire Klem's decision Saturday in awarding the game to Pittsburg, and as a result cush-ions and soft drink bottles flew at the handler of the indicator. A riot was narrowly averted.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Franklin Murphy, an Irish athlete, who wishes to become a citizen of this country, was not deported by the Ellis Island authorities yesterday because of physical debility, as had been decided by the Board of Special Inquiry on Thursday. From Washington came word almost of the last moment granting a stay, at Murphy will have another hearing to-microw. Immigration officials say a resident of New York, a man of wealth and influence, whose name Commissioner Watchorn declined to give, did much to obtain this chance for Murphy. It is understood that this man, who was one of the backers of the American Olympic team, backers of the American Olympic team went to Washington in the Irish ath-lete's behalf.

nicely. They play as college players do, and they win.

The Binders were never in it with the Ink Slingers Saturday. Mackreth, the fast fielder and star backstop, was out of the game. "'Nuff sed."

Vice-President Bradiey, of the Virginia League and owner of the Richmond Club, has had bleachers acroadd in the left field and covers put over all of them. The park now accommodates more than a thousand more people than it did at the first of the season. In Saturday's game the bleachers were more than a hundred who were in the field near the right fielder.

Titman, who was loaned to Portsmouth by Manager Shaffer, was at bat five times in Saturday's game, and soored one of the runs and made one hit. He had two chances in the right garden and accepted both of them.

Barley Kain is not such a back number as some of the people thought. He is reorganizing his team in good shape,

Little Rock, in the Southern Lease, is again supporting a losing team. Last season the nine finished in last place, and it looks as though that berth will be retained for them again.

Umpire Ike had his troubles in Saturday's game when Roanoke and Danville met. It also appears that His Umpe, Mr. Moore, had a sweet time getting away after his decisions had been given in Norfolk.

Schumann, the big man, who is working for Barley Kain and the Portsmouth team, played the whole game Saturday and didn't allow Norfolk to have a run. He is doing wonderful work in the box and the games that he has lost should have been victories. Schumann and Cassidy are the finds of the league, with Moser and Still close seconds.

And Cassidy got his bumps Saturday.

And Cassidy got his bumps Saturday. It was the first game he has lost, and it was close. Danville had Howard, a new man, in the box, and he handed them up in such fine shape that there wasn't any show for a defeat.
